

Directions to Chagdud Gonpa/Rigdzin Ling Junction City, California

BY CAR

Coming from south of Redding - Take interstate 5 (I-5) to Redding. Take the Hwy #44 west turnoff (Exit 678) going towards Weaverville/Eureka. (Do not be confused by the next exit that says 299 west.) When you get into Redding follow the signs for #299 west. Go about fifty miles on 299 until you come to Junction City (which is 8 miles west of Weaverville.) Turn left onto Dutch Creek Road, the first left after passing the "Junction City" sign. Cross the bridge over the Trinity River and turn immediately right onto Red Hill Road. The first left driveway on Red Hill Rd will take you to the office. The next left driveway will take you to the main center, Tara House. Welcome!

Coming from north of Redding (Oregon/ Washington) - In Yreka take the Hwy #3 turnoff to Weaverville (through Fort Jones, Etna and Callahan) In Weaverville turn right onto Hwy 299 west. Go 8 miles to Junction City and then follow the above directions. However, during the winter Hwy #3 is often impassable and you must take I-5 to Redding. Take the 678B exit (Downtown Redding) and then proceed as above

Coming from Eureka/Arcata - From Interstate 101 north of Arcata take the Hwy #299 East turnoff (Weaverville/Redding) to Junction City. Pass through Junction City and take the first right turn onto Dutch Creek Rd. Then follow the above directions.

BY BUS:

The Greyhound Bus Line offers service between most major cities and Redding. There is a limited Amtrak bus schedule between Sacramento & Redding.

BY PLANE:

Redding is served by Horizon Air (assoc w/Alaska Airlines) and United Express (assoc w/United Airlines).

BY TRAIN:

Amtrak provides service between Redding and most major cities, although normal arrivals and departures take place in the middle of the night. There is an amtrak bus from some locations that arrives in Redding during the day, and is worth a check.